

NOVEMBER NUPTIALS

TWO COUPLES MARRIED AT HOME AND ONE AT CHURCH.

Mrs. Tupper to Mr. Wortham; Miss Placanis to Mr. Smethe; Miss Horne to Mr. Glazebrook.

Mrs. Charles E. Wortham and Mrs. Mary T. Tupper were married at 11 o'clock yesterday morning at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Coleman Wortham, No. 111 east Grace street.

The wedding was a very quiet one, and was only attended by a small company of relatives and intimate friends.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Wortham left on a trip to New York. Mr. Wortham is one of the best-known business-men in Richmond.

Another quiet wedding occurred at 6 o'clock yesterday morning, when Miss Evelyn M. Pleasant and Mr. George W. Smethe were joined in holy wedlock by Rev. Dr. J. M. Frost.

Numerous and handsome presents were tendered the happy couple by their friends.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Smethe left on a northern trip.

GLAZEBROOK--HAWES.

Park-Place Methodist church presented an attractive scene at 6 o'clock last evening, when Mr. Onslow B. Glazebrook and Miss Nellie F. Hawks were married.

The church was crowded with relatives and friends of the young couple, who came to witness the ceremony that made the two one.

At the appointed hour the bride and groom entered together and proceeded to the altar, where the ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Bledsoe.

The bride, who is one of the most attractive young ladies of the West End, looked very pretty in a traveling suit of dark gray serge, with hat and trimmings to match, and carried a lovely bouquet of La France roses.

The groom is a deservedly popular young man of this city, and is highly esteemed by all who know him.

Messrs. J. A. Ladd, M. S. Dyson, S. D. Cook, A. S. Walcott, Dr. N. Doherty, and C. B. Gale, who were in evening dress, with ladies in white robes, acted as ushers.

Immediately after the ceremony Rev. Dr. Hatcher pronounced the blessing. The bride and groom then took the 6:45 train for a northern trip.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE.

The State Board of Agriculture practically self-sustaining.

At the last meeting of the State Board of Agriculture it was decided to have a farmers' institute in every congressional district in the State wherever 300 would sign a paper, thereby agreeing to give the institute their support and to attend its sessions.

Three hundred farmers of the Seventh district have signed a petition asking that an institute be held in Charlottesville during this month, and it is likely the Board of Agriculture will comply with their request.

It appears from the annual report of the board, just issued, that under the new act, the Commissioner of Agriculture has paid into the State treasury $8,100. He had paid $400 under the old law, making $8,500 during the fiscal year ending September 30th.

By reducing the salary of the Commissioner $400, which leaves him a salary of only $1,500, and by abolishing the office of Commissioner of Immigration, which office was paid $1,500, and by curtailing other expenses and restricting the work of the department the entire expenditures for the year were only $3,250.

Of this amount $3,094.12 was for expenses incurred by the chemical department during the seven months that the new fertilizer law has been in operation. Forty-one dollars and thirty-eight cents reported in the contingent fund was received from county inauguration agents for the sale of land. This makes the excess of expenditures over receipts of the department for the year only $4.87. In other words, out of the $10,000, which the State the department has used only $4.87, the balance of the $10,000, or $9,995.13, has been turned over to the Treasury. From this statement it appears that the farmers are running this institution without any help from the State.

President Koiner, of the board, in his report recommends that the salary of the Commissioner be increased.

A FEDERAL POOH-BAH.

Mr. Harrison Attending to the Duties of Five Positions at One Time.

A representative of the Dispatch called at the custom-house yesterday afternoon in the usual purgation of his vocation as a gatherer of news. At the District Attorney's office he was told that Judge Bledsoe was out of the city; he had gone to Norfolk on official business.

Mr. Carter Harrison was attending to official business in his absence. Mr. M. F. Pleasant, clerk of the Circuit Court of the United States, was away on a card on his door informing the public that Mr. Carter Harrison would see and attend to any business arising. Mr. Harrison is himself a United States commissioner, and also the chief special agent of the Government in this city for the collection of manufacturing statistics.

In addition to the duties of these offices he has recently been assisting Deputy Marshal Ballard in the appointment and qualification of the deputy United States marshals. In view of the above it seems that Mr. Harrison has his hands full of the official business of the United States can fill them. The duties of five offices are calculated to keep an ordinary man busy, though Mr. Harrison seems to be bearing up surprisingly well under the strain.

Judge Bledsoe and Mr. Pleasant are in Norfolk, presumably in connection with Congressman Bowen's preparations to contest the district before the next House of Representatives, which was recommended by the great portion of his constituents on yesterday to be a "d--d" hopeless undertaking under the circumstances.

THE GRACE-STREET BAZAAR.

There Will Be Seven Tables--Lots of Liberal Donations Made.

The ladies in charge of the bazaar to be given for the benefit of the Grace-Street Baptist church have decided to open their entertainment on Monday, November 17th. They felt sure that they had secured a central and convenient hall for holding the bazaar, but have been disappointed as to that place, and are now arranging for another.

THE SEVEN TABLES.

There will be seven tables, and this is how they are to be arranged:

1. Refreshments, including the dining room, ice-cream, and other refreshments for the sale of fancy and fruit cakes. This department will be under the management of Mrs. Thomas J. Todd, Mrs. Samuel B. Witt, Mrs. William J. McDowell, and other ladies will assist her.

2. Tobacco-Booth--Mrs. A. L. Sheppard, principal; with Miss Birdie Jones, Mrs. H. H. Sands, Mrs. C. V. Clah, and Mrs. W. Saunders as associates.

3. The Candy and Fruit Stand--Mrs. E. M. Foster, principal; with Miss Annie McDowell, Miss Sallie Parker, and Miss Alta Foster as associates.

4. Ladies Sewing Circle--Mrs. R. B. Van Burden, principal, and the members of the Circle to assist. This will be a fancy table. This table will have the Dancer paper.

SOME LIBERAL GIFTS.

The ladies are quietly canvassing the city and writing to those at a distance to get assurances, and this work will be pressed with the utmost vigor. It may interest the readers to hear of some gifts received during the past few days. Here are a few samples: Major Capers offers to furnish his own force and material and supply free of all cost all the biscuits, waffles, cakes, etc., that the restaurant may need; Mr. T. L. Hanton offers to furnish all the milk needed; the Domestic Sewing-Machine Company has donated a fine sewing-machine; the Supply Hardware Company, of Philadelphia, has sent a beautiful piano-lamp; Messrs. Miller & Biondi, besides making a handsome contribution, agree to decorate one of the tables; picture and easel from the Academy of Fine Arts, white plush and shirred chairs from Mrs. Kaufman & Co., handsome plush and old oak rocking chair from Mr. Harwood, large table-cover from Levy & Davis, chenille velvet rug from Anderson & Son, box of ladies' fancy slippers from E. H. Spence; from Mr. John Bowers a large collection of tinware, including a stand set, a crock, and three or four other articles, and one child's iron cooking-stove.

Mr. Burke has made valuable gifts in money and material. Mr. Moxie gives five gallons of ice-cream and fifty pounds of fine candies, besides kind services in money have been received from New York, Wisconsin, Missouri, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, &c. The indications are that the bazaar will be a great success. The Grace-Street people have undertaken a great work, and it is possible that they will be receiving such substantial tokens of encouragement.
